The Grand Army Post was first organized on April 6, 1866, at Decatur, Illinois, and since that time the Grand Army of the Republic has annually observed Grand Army Day on April 6. The Military Order of the World War, for the past eleven years, has sponsored April 6 as Army Day. Officially it is recognized by our War Department and this year it will mark the seventy-second anniversary of the founding of the Grand Army Post and the twenty-first anniversary of the entrance of our country into the World War.

Appropriate exercises and military ceremonies are held throughout the United States by Army posts and allied organizations, and I respectfully request that South Dakota honor the Army on Wednesday, April 6, 1938, by displaying our flag at their homes and business places.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 4th day of March, 1938.
